

January 6, 2015

Dr. Timothy Jennings, M.D., has recently been named a Distinguished Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association. Being named a Distinguished Fellow is the highest APA membership honor and is awarded to outstanding psychiatrists who have made significant contributions to the psychiatric profession. These contributions include: administration, teaching, scientific and scholarly publications, volunteering in mental health and medical activities of social significance, community involvement, as well as for clinical excellence. Dr. Jennings will be publicly recognized at the Convocation of Fellows and Distinguished Fellows, which is held during the APA's annual meeting.

"Excellence, not mere competence, is the hallmark of an APA Distinguished Fellow."

Source: American Psychiatric Association, www.psychiatry.org